CLASIFICACIÓN:

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is dense and covers most of the page, with some lines appearing to be crossed out or heavily corrected. The script is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century.

Handwritten text at the top of the right page, possibly a header or a specific clause of the document. It includes some numbers and names.

Four distinct signatures or initials in cursive script, arranged horizontally. They appear to be names of individuals involved in the document's creation or approval.

A line of handwritten text, possibly a date or a reference to a specific event or location. It includes the word "en los" and "y" followed by some illegible characters.

A signature or initial on the left side of the right page, enclosed in a decorative frame. It appears to be a name, possibly "Juan de..."

Several decorative flourishes and signatures on the right side of the page. One prominent signature is enclosed in a large, ornate frame and appears to be "Juan de..."
