Dear Nestor,

I am having a few people come over for dinner this next Saturday.
Your room mate says you will be in town and I would like to have you come. Bob Shlek will be here, and Shlek Sweet whom you may have met at the beach this summer and someone I know you don't know but I think will like - Steven Hunt. I hope you can make it. Would you drop me a line when you get the sayings or yes so I can plan on it? It will be early, about 8 or 9 so you can go on to something else if you like - I imagine your weekends in town being infrequent are rather crowded.

Tutti divertimenti nel convento -

Don.
